

Craig Tallents

Craig is a Drapers' appointed Governor, joining the Governing Body in October 2017.

Craig was a partner in a firm of Chartered Accountants for a number of years before giving it all up and commanding his Army Reserve Regiment. Today he works as a Management Consultant specialising in Strategic re-engineering with particular emphasis on Finance. He works for a number of bodies both in the private and public sector.

He is married with two children and lives in St Albans.