

Thomas Gracey

Thomas is a Drapers' appointed Governor, joining the Governing Body in October 2018.

Thomas is a qualified management accountant specialising in the application prudential regulation in financial services. Outside of work, he is a local councillor focusing on the provision of community services and developing the environment and sustainability agenda in his area of local government.

He is married with four children, all currently in primary education.